

A company producing natural and healthy products. Certified organic and sustainable agriculture. They work with several product lines, both for food (functional ingredients, dietary supplements, aloe vera-based foods, and mycological products) and consumer goods (cosmetics).

With over 25 years of experience developing natural ingredients, we are the leading European manufacturer of natural antioxidants and natural vitamin E for the food, cosmetics and personal care, nutraceutical, pharmaceutical, and animal nutrition industries.

At BTSA, we have developed a series of natural ingredients for the food industry with the goal of promoting good nutrition in humans, using natural antioxidants that extend the shelf life of products (natural tocopherols) and active ingredients to enrich foods (natural vitamin E).

Producer of organic sugar specialty products made from natural sugars and fruit concentrates at top of the line facilities for artisan, food and non-food industry products.

Manufacturer of innovative, top-quality ice creams made with the finest raw materials and distinctive flavors. +4 million units produced daily. +46 million liters of production per year. +40 years of experience in the sector.

Biotechnology center focused on research and innovation with a high degree of specialization in the development of nutraceuticals from medicinal mushrooms. An innovative and sustainable biotechnology company applied to mycology that produces species for pharmaceutical use in compliance with European regulations for organic production. It has launched multiple R&D projects with international universities and research centers. It won the 2017 Spanish Food Award for Organic Production.

Third-largest group in olive oil sales in Spain (Alimarket 2016) and the leading group in the industrial activity (extraction/milling and refining) of edible oils in Spain. It obtains approximately 40% of its revenue from abroad and has a 15% share of national olive oil exports. It has seven extractors/mills. (Alimarket 2015). Migasa sells bulk goods and has the appropriate industrial formats, from 200 kg drums to 25-ton tankers. IFS, BRC, CAAE (Organic Agriculture), HALAL, and KOSHER certifications.

The second-level cooperative society Oleoestepa is an extra virgin olive oil producer and marketer founded in 1986. Currently, this cooperative group brings together more than 7,500 farmers with approximately 60,000 hectares of olive groves, representing an ecosystem of more than 10 million olive trees cultivated using integrated and organic production techniques that guarantee their sustainability.

---