Welcome

to the 2019 Wines from Spain Annual Tasting

We return to Sky Garden in the heart of the City of London for a showcase of over 1,000 wines from Spain's increasingly rich and varied viticultural landscape.

Today, 43 importers are present ranging from well-known names to newcomers for whom Spain plays an important role as part of an Old World portfolio. There are also 16 exporters here today looking for distribution. This is often the place to look for emerging regions and grape varieties so do make time to meet them if you are looking for new producers.

This year's event probably features the most extensive line-up of DO regions to date: there are Txakolí wines on show from all three of the DO regions of the Basque Country; Galicia's DO Ribeiro and Ribeira Sacra; a generous selection from Catalonia DOs Penedès and Terra Alta and a fine bunch from DO Vinos de Madrid.

Of course there are also the familiar faces. All-important Rioja is present with over 100 wines, Ribera del Duero with over 70 and there is also an extensive range of Cava wines to taste.

The excitement surrounding white varietals continues as more traditional varieties come out of the wilderness and are being nurtured by a new generation of winemakers. Albilllo, found predominantly across Castilla y León, is a good example of this new trend and there are several wines featuring the variety here today. There are also more Tempranillo Blanco wines on show along with Garnacha Blanca and Godello.

As for reds, Tempranillo and Garnacha are here in a myriad of different guises but don't forget unique Spanish varieties such as Graciano and other indigenous gems with a decidedly regional identity such as Galicia's Mencía and the Bobal wines of eastern Spain.

This is also an ideal occasion to try wines from 2018, a much cooler year with more generous yields. Look out for vibrant rosés and crisp whites – essentials for wine lists for the warmer months to come – as well as youthful reds with plenty of personality.

Round things off with a few sherries; there are plenty to choose including light, crisp Finos and Manzanillas, some of them en rama styles which taste as if they have come straight from the barrel in Jerez.

Enjoy the tasting.

Self-pour Tastings

Two self-pour tastings will take place throughout the day:

Going Green: A focus on Spain's organic and sustainable winemaking.
Sky Pod Bar – Level 35

Vegan Wines: A selection of Spanish wines suitable for vegan consumers.
City Garden Bar – Level 36

Mini-Tutorials

The Fenchurch Restaurant Bar, located on level 37, will host informal tutorials throughout the day.

Spanish Wines, naturally

11am-11.30am & 4pm-4.30pm

The innovation in Spanish vineyards and wineries, the growth in more sustainable and organic farming and the use of modern techniques to revive ancient traditions, set Spain on an enviable course to adapt to changing consumer expectations. Sarah Jane Evans MW presents 5 wines which highlight recent developments in Spain and the styles produced for today's increasingly mindful consumer.

Rueda Verdejo – Spain's Exceptional White Wine

12pm-12.30pm & 3pm-3.30pm

The indigenous Verdejo grape produces wines with freshness, great fruitiness and a characteristic touch of bitterness. Rueda's exceptional white is fast becoming the nation's favourite in Spain and also now in the UK where sales enjoyed a 45% increase in 2018. Sarah Jane Evans MW presents a tasting of different styles, including young, barrel fermented, sur lie and old vine Verdejos.

Albion Wine Shippers

For 30 years our small team has been committed to offering London an original and diverse range of quality wines and spirits, all of which have been carefully hand-selected over the years. With a particular focus in the Old World, in particular Spain and France, we have curated wines across a range of regions, styles, prices for both our trade portfolio and little shop in Holborn. We are especially big advocates of Spanish and Languedoc wines, where we can't stop finding great value, interesting new sub-regions and cleverly used grapes.

Bodegas Manzanos

Located on the plains of the River Ebro in the heart of Rioja, Bodegas Manzanos combines the best traditions of this iconic land with the youthful flair of their young team - Victor and David Fernández de Manzanos and winemaker Borja Ripa. With the utmost respect for the land, 250 hectares of vineyards are worked sustainably and the winery itself was built to minimize the visual impact on the land. The family cultivates the traditional varietals of Rioja - Tempranillo, Garnacha, Graciano, Mazuelo and Viura - and crafts wines with a real sense of place and authenticity.

Bodegas Barón de Ley

Barón de Ley was founded in 1985 by a small group of Rioja wine professionals who wanted to develop a purely "vineyard-driven" winery, oriented to the production of high quality wines from their own vineyards. They also wanted to develop and implement a new style of modern Rioja wines; wines of deeper colour, structure and concentration, in line with what today's most discerning consumers are looking for.

Georges Barbier, established in 1983, is one of the finest wine importers/merchants in the UK. We source wines from small, independent wineries that respect tradition and the environment. This, inevitably, leads to quality wines with a distinctive regional style and individuality. We decided to focus on wines from France and Spain as these countries offer a wealth of diversity, not only from the classic areas such as Bordeaux and Rioja, but from lesser known areas where real gems can be found!

C.V.N.E

C.V.N.E. - Compañía Vinícola del Norte de España - The Northern Spanish Wine Company - was established in March 1879 in the historic wine town of Haro, Rioja. Set up by two brothers, Eusebio and Raimundo Real de Asúa, their aim was to capitalize on the flourishing new trade in wine. C.V.N.E. is still controlled by the direct descendants of the founding family, now in its fifth generation.

Marqués de Murrieta

Established in 1852 by Luciano Francisco Ramón de Murrieta, this historic bodega is one of the first of the famous Rioja houses to remain in existence today. As the original visionary of the Rioja region, Luciano was made Marqués de Murrieta by Queen Isabel II. In 1983 the bodega was taken over by D. Vicente Cebrián-Sagarriga, Count of Creixell, whose aim was to establish Bodegas Marqués de Murrieta among the best wineries in the world. His son took over in 1996 and has taken the bodega into the 21st Century investing significantly in the vineyards and winery to achieve outstanding wines.

Moreno Wine Importers

2018 was a year of transition for Moreno but the ethos of family values, team work and putting our customers first are still firmly ingrained in our DNA. This year we are championing fresh thinking, we have a road map of the Old World tucked under our arm, and a rough plan of where to sniff out the most innovative wines to bring back to the UK. While we no longer bottle wine in our cellar, we still have that spark of rebellion... of passionate nerdy-ism! We're a pretty normal bunch, but with an extraordinary drive to do things differently, to embrace change and just bloody go for it.

Bodega Coral Duero - Rompesedas

The Rompesedas range from Bodega Coral Duero Wines is one of Toro's best kept secrets. We use 100% Tinta de Toro (Tempranillo) grapes from some of the world's oldest and lowest yielding vineyards where the vines are up to 150 years old, ungrafted, unirrigated and organically farmed. Fruit is picked by hand and total production is around 80,000 bottles. The Rompesedas range is produced at a small state-of-the-art winery in the heart of the vineyards.

Altanza Bodegas

"Inspiration exists, but it has to find you working" - Picasso's well-known words aptly encapsulate the Altanza spirit. Rioja's rich winemaking tradition is at the heart of what we do but we are also careful to respond to today's consumer both at home and abroad. We are one of the most self-sufficient wineries in Rioja - 65% of our grapes come from our own vineyards - and one of the main Sauvignon Blanc growers in Rioja. In 2017 Altanza established a joint-venture in Jerez with Roberto Amillo; several of the premium sherries that we produce through this collaboration are on show today.

Sustainable farming, a love for the region and the friendship between three winemakers - Margarita Madrigal, Alexandra Schmedes and Gonzalo Rodríguez - is what defines Bodegas Más Que Vinos. Our 35 hectares of vineyards located on the Meseta de Ocaña (Toledo), in the heart of Castille comprise organically farmed bush vineyards planted to the local white varieties Airén and Malvar and reds Tempranillo (Cencibel) and Garnacha. Our winemaking philosophy is based on modern principles incorporating traditional techniques such as the use of clay and cement amphorae.

High altitude wines

In 1998, the Fuentes Family established Finca Río Negro reviving the once famous wine tradition which existed before phylloxera arrived in the region. We are located at the foothills of the Sierra Norte Guadalajara Natural Park at the unusually high altitude of 1,000 metres and 60 kilometres from other vineyards; we believe we have a unique terroir. The bodega has 42 hectares of vines divided in 30 different plots with Tempranillo, Syrah, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Gewürztraminer. Finca Río Negro wines are hand-harvested and estate bottled. LAS MORADAS
SAN MARTÍN

At Las Moradas de San Martín in DO Vinos de Madrid we care for our Garnacha vines as naturally as possible. We believe that organic viticulture is the way to get the best from the grape so we use only the resources that nature offers us and we harvest by hand. Located at an altitude of 870 metres, our unique estate has 21 acres of vines with excellent potential. There are young and old vineyards dating back more than 100 years both dry cultivated and goblet trained. We also offer a white wine from the Albillo variety, a rare indigenous variety which is well worth discovering.

Mas Llunes

More than five generations preceded him, so, by the time Antoni Roig was a teenager, he already knew he wanted to be a winemaker. In 2000 he decided to found Mas Llunes to carry on the family tradition whilst embracing modern winemaking in Empordà. The winery has 75 hectares, some 118-year-old vines and the recognition of several international competitions. We only make wines with our own grapes and mainly work with Garnacha and Cariñena, which give fresh, concentrated, mineral wines, typical of Empordà. Antoni's daughter Gemma now adds a seventh generation to her family's winemaking history.

Our wines are not typically Spanish in style; they show higher acidity, freshness and elegance. We control all processes from growing the fruit to winemaking, bottling and marketing and we only use our own grapes. Nekeas is a modern and flexible company with exports accounting for 80% of sales. Vinos del Viento

Californian winemaker Michael Cooper lives in Spain and makes wines in four different DOs: Campo de Borja, Calatayud, Cariñena and Terra Alta. He seeks out the best locations for old Garnacha and Cariñena vines which are often dry-farmed on poor stony calcareous and slate soils. The winemaking approach is a quest for purity of the grape and typicity of the region using native yeasts, spontaneous ferments and little or no filtering. Vinos del Viento means 'wines of the wind' - all the DO regions in the range feature the cool dry Cierzo wind which gives intrinsic freshness to wines.
